When assessing the composition of the senior management team or identifying suitable management candidates, the Company will also consider candidates on merit against objective criteria having due regard to the benefits of diversity.

The Company will periodically assess the expertise, experience, skills and backgrounds of its directors in light of the needs of the Board, including the extent to which the current composition of the Board reflects a diverse mix of knowledge, experience, skills and backgrounds, including an appropriate number of women directors. Annually, the Governance and Nomination Committee of the Board will review this policy and assess its effectiveness in promoting diversity, including an appropriate number of women in the ranks of our board and senior management.
